Statute for the amendment of the Examination Regulations for the Master’s degree in Computer Engineering of the Faculty for Electrical Engineering, Computer Science and Mathematics at the University of Paderborn

of 21 June 2013
Statute for the amendment of the Examination Regulations for the Master’s degree in Computer Engineering of the Faculty for Electrical Engineering, Computer Science and Mathematics at the University of Paderborn

of 21 June 2013

Based on §2 section 4 and §64 section 1 of North-Rhine Westphalia's Tertiary Institutions Act (Higher Education Act – HG) of 31 October 2006 (GV. NRW. 2006 p. 474), last amended by Article 1 of the Act for amending the Higher Education Act and the Art Colleges Act of 18 December 2012 (GV. NRW. 2012 p. 672), the University of Paderborn issued the following statute:

Article 1

The examination regulations for the Master's degree in Computer Engineering at the University of Paderborn of 31 May 2013 (AM.Uni.Pb No. 43/13) shall be amended as follows:

  a) §11 section 3 is replaced by:

"(3) The examination committee consists of representatives of the Institute for Electrical Engineering and Information Technology and the Institute for Computer Science. It is composed of the chairman, the deputy chairman and five additional members. Upon proposal by the respective group, the chairman, deputy chairman, two additional members from the group of university professors, one member from the group of academic staff and two members from the group of students are elected by their respective representatives in the Faculty Council. Representatives are elected for the members of the examination committee accordingly with the exception of the chairman and deputy chairman. Participation by the institutes, chairmanship and tenures are regulated as follows:

1. The group of university professors is composed of two members and their representatives from the institutes involved. No. 2 remains unaffected thereby."
2. The chairmanship changes between the institutes involved (rotation) from term of office to term of office of the members from the group of university professors. The deputy chairmanship is filled by the other respective institute.

3. The academic staff comes from the institute that does not hold the chairmanship.

4. The term of office of the members from the group of university professors and from the group of academic staff is two years and runs from 1 October of the election year of the examination committee until 30 September of the second following year. The term of office of the students is one year and runs from 1 October of the election year of the examination committee until 30 September of the following year. Re-election is permitted.

b) In §28 paragraph 1, sentence 2 after "The admission requirements according to §2" the following words will be added: "the regulations for the examination committee according to §11 and the rules for credit points according to §13 and".

Article 2

This statute is published in the official communications of the University of Paderborn and comes into force on the day following its publication.

The first term of office of the examination committee starts on the day after the publication of this statute and runs for the members from the group of university professors and from the group of academic staff until 30 September of the second following year and runs for the students until 30 September of the following year.

This document has been issued as a result of the decision of the Faculty Council of the Faculty for Electrical Engineering, Computer Science and Mathematics dated 17 June 2013 and the legal review through the Rector's Office, dated 19 June 2013.

Paderborn, 21 June 2013

The Rector

University of Paderborn

Professor Dr. Nikolaus Risch